

Footy's biggest rivalry
Double trouble
Jamie First

THE bond between six-year-old identical twins Jack and Will Kalic will be sorely tested on Anzac Day.

Both are passionate footy fans but Jack barracks for Collingwood, while Will can't see beyond red and black.

Father Mark (a Swans supporter) said they got into the sport a couple of years ago.

"They are always kicking the ball in the park or watching," he said.

Choosing their teams based on who their friends went for, Mr Kalic said they couldn't be swayed by the family.

"They are both very confident... they've even made their own ladders and put their team on the top and the other on the bottom."

As for what happens when the final siren sounds on Thursday, Mr Kalic said he's expecting a lot of sulking, teasing and friendly banter.
